3.7 My English

Available points: 4

Score: 4 out of 4

Read what João says and choose the correct words to complete the sentences below.

I come from Lisbon, but I'm a student in Coimbra. I study Economics at university, and I study English at evening classes. In summer, I work in a bar on the beach near Lisbon, and there are a lot of English-speaking tourists there. A lot of TV and films in Portugal are in English, too, so I watch them to help me learn. My English is OK, but I make some silly mistakes – for example, You like football? instead of Do you like football? People understand me, but I like to get it right. And I sometimes make mistakes with negatives, too: I no like football instead of I don't like football. I think my pronunciation is OK, usually, but my spelling in English is bad!

- 1 João is from .
- 2 He studies at university.
- 3 He thinks his pronunciation is and his spelling is .
