Sample questions and answers

...Let's talk about your job...

What kind of work do you do?

Well now, I'm an athletic trainer in a small gym, and I also have to help out at the reception desk and also in the retail shop we run. I guess you can say that I have to wear many hats. [The underlined phrases are explained in the section below regarding idiomatic language]

Why did you choose that kind of work?

Ok, that's quite an easy question. It's because I've always been keen on sports, so when I was trying to find a job, I decided to look for something I'm familiar with. Luckily I found a golden opportunity at the gym just down the road from my house.

Did you have to do any training or study for this job?

Well, for this type of job there is no formal training. I mostly learnt from the other staff and through hands-on experience.

Is there anything you don't like about your job?

Well there are some things I don't like, but it's not related to the job itself. I mean this job is great, I love to guide people about how to exercise, it's meaningful. However, the one thing I don't like is that there is not much team spirit amongst my co-workers. I guess you could say that my gym has low workplace morale. I think this is the only thing bothering me.

Q: Have you got any interests or hobbies?

Part 1: Top Tips!

Impress the examiner with your ability to give full answers to his or her questions.

a) Avoid short, 'yes', 'no' answers.

Q: Tell me a little about where you come from?

A: I'm from Coimbra. It's a city in the central part of Portugal. It's a very historical city and we have one of the oldest universities in Europe.

Use examples to back up statements.

Q: Do you enjoy studying English?

A: Oh yes! I went to England last year and loved being able to communicate with local people. And knowing a second language means you have access to a whole new culture ... new authors, English films.

b) Give the examiner a picture of you.

Q: Why are you taking the IELTS exam?

A: I'm taking an IELTS course in India in order to go to university in the UK. I've been accepted on a Business course in London but need to get the right IELTS score so I've been doing lots of IELTS Speaking practice.

Q: Have you got any interests or hobbies?

A: Not really. I like watching football and read books quite often, but I don't have any hobbies really. Hopefully one day I'll discover a hidden interest!
