

Trade and Investment Expert

Required Skills and Experience

- ü Master's (or Bachelor's) Degree in Economics, Mathematics, Business Administration, or related field with more than five years of experience in agricultural/food industry investment, project structuring/funding, management;
- ü Good experience of working in/with state/quazi-government (incl. IPAs) and public bodies in agriculture and food-related activities (processing, logistics, supply chain set-up etc.);
- ü Practical knowledge of project/sectoral analytic dashboards, project/corporate finance (incl. Islamic finance) and reporting system strongly preferred;
- ü Hands-on experience with structuring/implementing projects and programs in the indicated fields is necessary;
- ü Citizenship of the IOFS member country.

Languages

- ü Excellent command of two out of three IOFS working languages(English, French, Arabic) (written, spoken, comprehension) is a must.

Duties & Responsibilities

- ü Development and advancement of the trade&investment related IOFS program/s;
- ü Structuring and implementation of projects in field of agriculture and food ecosystem (incl. budgeting, processing, logistics, supply chain management)
- ü Building and executing required interactions with government, institutional/private financiers and investors, and industry officials on regional/international level for a variety of programs, projects, and tasks, including technical assistance, concept development, planning, coordination, integration, and execution;
- ü Learning best practices/ innovations (in program/ project implementation) and their application/utilization in business processes and daily multi-task environment;
- ü Conducting project/industry data analysis, presenting outcomes/project solutions and regular reporting to the management;
- ü Communicating effectively and proactively with stakeholders to ensure information is presented logically and consistently.
- ü Providing technical knowledge support to the team.

ü Performs other duties as assigned.

Soft Skills

ü Creativity and innovative thinking; Advanced knowledge of social media; Tech-savvy; Perfect writing skills; Advanced proficiency in MS Office; Outstanding verbal and written communication skills; Result-orientated, responsible, disciplined, executive, able to perform solely and within the team; Excellent time-management and organizational skills.

References

ü From previous employers/contact agencies

Salary, Increments, Allowances and Other Social Packages

ü To be discussed