

Mutiny on the Bounty

Tim Vicary

Glossary

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

English	Description in English	Catalan barrel	a big "bottle" for wine, water, beer, etc.	barril, bóta bird	an animal which flies	ocell breadfruit	a big fruit, like an apple	fruit de l'arbre del pa (originari d'Indonèsia i de Nova Guinea) blood	the red liquid in a person's body	sang burn	to make a fire	cremar canoe	a small wooden boat	canoa captain	the most important officer on a ship	capità catch (past tense caught)	to get something with your hands	atrapar, agafar chain	a metal rope	cadena coconut	a big brown hard fruit; it has sweet white food and "milk" inside	COCO cut	to open something with a knife	tallar dance	to move your body to music	ballar damn	a bad word; people say this when they are angry	maleït siga!, merda!
death	the end of life	la mort deck	the door of a ship	coberta food	the things we eat	menjar full	something is full when you cannot put any more into it	ple goat	a small animal, like a sheep	cabra
God	the "person" (in the Christian religion) who made the world and knows everything	Déu

English	Description in English	Catalan
gun	a thing that shoots bullets to kill or hurt people or animals	pistola hard	very difficult	difícil, dur hell	some people believe that bad people go to hell when they die	infern hold (past tense held)	to have something in your hands	sostenir, aguantar island	a piece of land with water all round it	illa keep (past tense kept)	to have something and not give it to another person	guardar king	the most important man in a country	rei knot	a place where you tie two pieces of rope together	nus land (n)	the part of the earth that is not the sea	terra land (v)	to come out of a boat onto the land	desembarcar launch	a small boat	llanxa mutiny	a mutiny happens when sailors fight the captain (and sometimes kill him) and then take control of the ship	motí officer	a man (more important than a sailor) who works for the ship's captain	oficial pig	a small animal	porc pick up	to take something into your hand	collir, agafar prisoners	people in a prison (a place for bad people)	presos punishment	paying money, going to prison, death, etc. (what happens to people when they do bad things)	càstig rope	very thick, strong string	corda rum	a very strong drink, like whisky	rom sad	not happy	trist
sail (n)	a large cloth on a ship, to catch the wind	vela sail (v)	to make a ship move	navegar shout	to speak very, very loudly	cridar sink (past tense sank)	to go down under water	enfonsar-se, naufragar sir	a polite word for a man	senyor stone	a small piece of rock (the hard stuff in the ground)	pedra storm	very bad weather: a lot of rain and wind	tempesta strong	a strong person can carry heavy things, does not get tired easily, etc.	fort

English	Description in English	Catalan
swim	to move in water	nedar sword	a long, big knife	espasa throw (past tense threw)	to make something go quickly through the air	llançar, tirar tie	to put rope round something to hold it	lligar trial	the time when judges and other people find out what happened and what punishment bad people must have	judici, procés untie	the opposite of "to tie"	deslligar wave	a line of water which moves across the top of the sea	ona welcome	a word you say when you are pleased to see someone	benvingut wet	not dry; with water in it	mullat wind (n)	the air when it moves	vent wood	pieces of a dead tree	fusta worry (v)	to feel that something bad is going to happen	preocupar(-se) worried	unhappy and afraid	preocupat

Words to learn

- Write down any other new words you discover in your Oxford Graded Reader.
- Translate them into your language.
- Now try to learn them!

English	Your language