While watching my son's baseball game the other night, I noticed something new around the fence surrounding the field. There was a huge advertisement for a popular brand of soda. I was absolutely shocked! How could an advertisement for junk food be placed in view of all of the children and parents? I realize now that this huge corporation is giving money to my son's school, but at what cost?

- Advertisements for unhealthy food or drinks should not be on school property.
- While watching my son's baseball game the other night, I noticed something new around the fence surrounding the field.
- I think soda advertisements are very funny.
- I think it's wonderful that companies are paying for sports programs.

49- Read the introductory paragraph to an opinion essay below. Which of the following is the best thesis statement for the essay?

With new technology, advertising can be deceptive. For example, many beauty ads show women with perfect skin and hair. In reality, their photos have been 'touched up' by computer software programs. Men, too, are shown as very muscular and strong. When the reality may be quite different. Men and women both age naturally, but advertisements show a different kind of person-one who never gets old.

- With new technology, advertising can be deceptive. For example, many beauty ads show women with perfect skin and hair.
- I think computer software programs are very innovative.
- I think changing the way someone looks in a photo is outdated.
- I think advertising should show people of different ages, shapes, and size, not just young people.

I was watching TV last night and realized something about my life. I'm missing a lot of things. When I saw a commercial for a new sports car. I realized I don't have the most modern car. An ad for flat-screen TVs reminded me that my television is eight years old. And finally, the travel commercial reminded me that I don't have the money to travel to exotic places and stay in world famous resorts. So, in the end, all of these ads make me feel like a failure. This is not a reason why I watch TV.

- Advertising on TV should entertain us.
- Advertising on TV should not make us feel like we are not successful.
- Advertising on TV should provide us with details about all the latest products.
- Advertising on TV should make us miss a lot of things.
