You are going to write a review of a book that you have read.

Ibn Khaldun's Muqaddimah is one of the most important historical works ever written. The work was ground-breaking and it discussed important theories which are still relevant today. Because of its complex content, the book is not easy to read. However, it is well-written and well-organized. Reading Muqaddimah will make you think – and it will change your view of the world!

You are going to write a formal report to send to the city council about building the new dam near your town.

To: The City Council

From: Business Group

Subject: The proposed new airport

We are writing this report to discuss the effects that the new airport will have on our town.

Some people believe that the new airport is a good idea. They think it will bring more tourists and more money into the town.

Other people , on the other hand, believe that it will make so much noise and pollution which will have bad effects on the people living here .

For this reason, we suggest that the new airport be built elsewhere far from the residential areas.

You are going to write a formal letter to a Syrian organisation, asking for funds to help finance the action plan on animal protection you suggested in Speaking.

Dear sir,

I am writing on behalf of my class to ask for funds to finance a plan to protect birds. We suggest to build a reserve in an area of wasteland where birds can build their nests, have enough food, and stay safe, but this project costs a lot of money. We hope your organisation can help us collect money from the public to finance this plan. We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

You are going to write an article for a school magazine suggesting practical ways in which we could all save energy.

These days, the world is facing a serious shortage of energy resources, so we need to take some actions.

First, we should share cars with other people who are going to the same place as us. Secondly, we should sometimes travel by bus or bicycle, or walk. And finally, if you have a big car, you should replace it with a smaller one. In summary, we should all work together before it is too late.

You are going to write an opinion composition about money.

Money is very important to everyone these days but it does not bring happiness. We need money to pay for food, clothes and a home. In my opinion, money makes criminals and can lead to wars between countries. I believe that it's not money which makes the world go round. Of course money is great, but I also believe that good friends and families are what really make the world go round.

Write about a visit you have made to an interesting place.

Last year, my family and I went on a trip to Damascus.

We had breakfast at Tishreen park and took so many photos there. After that, we went to souk Al Hamidyeh where we spent the afternoon shopping. Later, we went to the Umayyad Mosque and met some tourists. In the evening, we watched the sunset on Mount Qassion, what a beautiful view!

It was a visit I can never forget.

Write a composition saying whether you agree or disagree with this statement:

Life was better in the 'good old days'.

No one can deny the fact that new technology has made life easier but life was better and simpler in the good old days. I believe that people used to be more friendly. They stood by one another's side through good and bad times while nowadays people hardly know their families. The bottom line, I totally agree with this statement because life today has made people grow apart.

The End
