OXFORD BOOKWORMS LIBRARY

Lorna Doone

R. D. Blackmore / Retold by David Penn

Glo	ssary		ORD ITY PRESS
English	Description in English		Spanish attack (v)	to start fighting someone or someth an attempt to hurt someone or som		atacar / ataque (n)
bog	very soft, wet ground that pulls you	down	pantano, ciénaga darling	a word for someone that you love ve	ery much	querido/a defend	to fight to keep away dangerous thin	ngs or people	defender earl	a title for a man from a very grand	family	conde evil	very bad		malo, malvado fire (v)	to shoot a gun		disparar force (v)	to make someone do something wh do not want to	en they	obligar gap	an opening in something, or betwee	en two things	agujero inn	a house or small hotel where you ca and drinks, and a room for the nigh		taberna, posada

English	Description in English	Spanish
lord	a title for a man from an important family	lord (título nobiliario) master	a man who has servants working for him	amo mistress	a woman who has servants working for her	ama moor	open, wild, high land	páramo rebel	a person who fights against his country's leaders	rebelde sand	the soft, yellow or white earth that is found on beaches by the sea	arena signal	a sign (e.g. a flag or a light) that sends a message to someone	señal size	how big or small something is	tamaño strength	being strong	fuerza
Saint Valentine's Day	February 14th; a day when lovers give each other cards and sometimes presents	día de San Valentín tightly	very closely and strongly	bien atado

Words to learn

- Write down any other new words you discover in your Oxford Graded Reader.
- Translate them into your language.
- Now try to learn them!

English	Your language