Rearrange the sentences to make a paragraph

Amina's day

The delivery man arrived at 11 o'clock. The delivery was an hour after I ordered. Unfortunately, two of the eggs were broken so I received a refund.

I woke up at seven o'clock and brushed my teeth. I made my breakfast at 7:30. I had 2 scrambled eggs, some toast, fresh orange juice, a banana and some yoghurt.

When the delivery man left, my husband and I went to a new restaurant called 'The Mexican Tongue'. I ordered a famous dish called the 'Arozz Rojo'. It was delicious. I asked for the recipe, but they said they couldn't give it to me.

After breakfast, I took a shower and called Panda Supermarket to order a few items. I bought some fruits and pineapple juice. I also bought some vegetables and organic eggs.

After lunch, my husband went to work and I went to visit my friend, Aisha. She's a chef for famous people also known as celebrities. She wants me to come work with her, but I want to open my own restaurant next year.

Reading: The Shark Bait Restaurant

Nowadays, people love strangeness and are willing to pay a lot of money for strange things. In Turkey, a millionaire called Asil Yukon built the world's first underwater restaurant. He started building the restaurant in 2005, but due to many complications such as underwater pressure, the opening of the restaurant was delayed until 2008.

When the restaurant was finally opened, it was a big sensation. People came from all over the world to eat there. Although the food was very expensive, customers didn't seem to mind. They came for the experience too. They would eat while looking at a variety of sea creatures swim above them.

A misconception people have is that they think the menu only includes sea food. However, the restaurant sells many different dishes including sushi, Arab cuisines and of course, Turkey's most popular dishes. The restaurant welcomes more than 2,500 customers a day. There's also a VIP section for celebrities and other famous people such as politicians. Mr. Asil wants to build a new restaurant in space. You have to fly on a Nasa rocket to have your meal next to the stars. some people think its romantic for married couples, but the majority of customers think it's not possible.
