Read the passage to answer the questions

Driving a car is a big responsibility. Before you start the engine, you must always fasten your seat belt. When you are on the highway, it is very important to obey the speed limit to avoid accidents. A cautious driver always looks at the rearview mirror and uses the signal light before turning. We should never drive recklessly because it is dangerous for everyone. If there is a traffic jam, you must stay patient and wait for the cars to move. Following the traffic signs helps keep the roads safe for all drivers.
