
University Vice-Presidency for Graduate Studies And Scientific Research

Deanship of Graduate Studies

College of: Science and Theoretical Studies

Department of: Law

Program: Master of International Business Law

COLLEGE AT A GLANCE:

History:

The College of Science and Theoretical Studies was established according to the Higher Education Council resolution in its (seventy-fifth) on 1/2/1435 AH-, after the Council reviewed the memorandum by the Secretariat of the Council, in this regard made the decision No. (23/75/1453) Under the following: approval of the establishment of the Science and Humanities Studies college in the Saudi Electronic University.

College seeks to graduate qualified national high efficiency competent in the field of science and theoretical studies, able to contribute effectively to establish the rules of the knowledge society and meet the market need of qualified and trained staff to the quality and professionalism, and through the provision of academic optimal environment for the development of knowledge, and the acquisition of skills in learning, research and innovation, and the development of curriculum in the different departments, to achieve a distinguished future academically and scientifically in the field of science and Humanities studies in general.

Department of Law

Law program was established by the College of Science and Theoretical Studies to provide a unique study plan that follows the legislative developments and creates interactions between the legitimate rules and regulation rules. Also, to ensure the development of students' skills by educational and technological means, in order to build specialized and qualified graduates to participate in various development sectors.

Mission:

A pioneer college that adopts the method of blended learning, which integrates direct attendance "face to face" and virtual attendance through technology. by using advanced techniques to provide a distinguished education and modern preparation to all community members. In accordance with the highest quality standards and best international practices, the college aims to increase the efficiency of the production of higher education institutions, disseminates Islamic and Arab knowledge and enhances the Kingdom's international presence.

Vision:

The College of Science and Theoretical studies seeks to produce highly qualified national professionals specialized in the field of science and theoretical studies. Graduates who can contribute effectively in establishing the rules of the knowledge society and meet the market needs of qualified and trained professional. By providing an ideal academic environment for knowledge development, acquiring the required skills in learning, research and innovation, and developing curricula and courses for its different departments, to achieve a pioneered academic and scientific future in the field of science and theoretical studies in general.

Objectives

- To keep pace with the international academic and scientific development in the world's leading universities in the fields of science and theoretical studies.
- To prepare and provide graduates with the required skills to compete in the fields of science and theoretical studies.
- To increase the level of competence among learners to be highly experienced and knowledgeable in their field.
- To contribute in filling the shortage of qualified national professionals scientifically and practically to pursuit of self-sufficiency.
- To Support continuous development through national and international partnerships.

Program learning outcomes:

- Apply knowledge and critical thinking skills to perform competent legal analysis, reasoning, and problem-solving.
- Strategize, develop, and conduct efficient legal research in local and international law.
- Identify and understand foundational concepts in international law and perform international legal research.
- Utilize communication skills, including effective listening and critical reading, writing in objective and persuasive styles, and oral advocacy and other oral communications.
- Demonstrate professional judgment, ethics, and professionalism through conduct consistent with the legal profession's values, standards, and discipline.
- Evaluate alternative business organization types.
- Design and construct contracts for international transactions.
- Evaluate different dispute resolution alternatives.
- Model effective communication and persuasion techniques for arbitration and trial.
- Analyze techniques and strategies to prepare for arbitration or trial.
- Evaluate how to effectively use witnesses and demonstrative evidence.
- Understand statutes and case law applicable to activities of business organizations.

✓ PROGRAM STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION

• Program Description

Program Structure by kind of requirements:

Kind of Requirements	Course Code	Course Title	Credit Hours	Pre-requisites	Co-requisites
International Business Law	LAW510	Legal Analysis, Research and Writing	3	None	None
	LAW520	Contract Drafting	3	None	None
	LAW530	Business Law	3	None	None
	LAW560	Bankruptcy	3	None	None
	LAW 570	International Business Transactions	3	None	None
	LAW580	International Taxation	3	None	None
	LAW630	International Contracts	3	None	None
	LAW640	Negotiation	3	None	None
	LAW 650	Corporations	3	None	None
	LAW670	International Commercial Arbitration	3	None	None
	LAW 680	Conflict of Laws	3	None	None
	LAW690	Intellectual Property	3	None	None
College Requirements				None	None
Department Requirements	None			None	None

Program Structure by years

Suggested Program Degree Plan (4 semesters)

First Semester

	Course Title	Credit Hours
1	LAW510 Legal Analysis, Research and Writing	3
2	LAW520 Contract Drafting	3
3	LAW530 Business Law	3
		9

Second Semester

	Course Title	Credit Hours
1	LAW560 Bankruptcy	3
2	LAW570 International Business Transactions	3
3	LAW580 International Taxation	3
		9

Third Semester

	Course Title	Credit Hours
1	LAW620 International Contracts	3
2	LAW630 Negotiation	3
3	LAW 640 Corporations	3
		9

Fourth Semester

	Course Title	Credit Hours
5	LAW670 International Commercial Arbitration	3
6	LAW680 Intellectual Property	3
7	LAW690 Conflict of Laws	3
		9