Comprehension

Read the passage written by Ali , then answer the questions that follow:

This is my uncle Ahmad. He's a firefighter. I admire him because he risks his life every day to save other people. He's a very honest and brave man. In fact, he was in the local newspaper once because he went into a burning house and rescued an old woman. He's also very active. We spend a lot of time together and I learn a lot about the dangers of his job. Actually have a great time when he's around, but not just because we play and tell jokes. He teaches me how important it is to be able to help others and become a good person. That's why I'd like to be him when I grow up.

Answer the questions:
