

Unit Six:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
In what situations do you think honesty is important?	At work, at school, and with friends.
What are some examples of honest things that people do?	Tell the truth, return found money
What are some examples of dishonest things that people do?	Lie, cheat, steal
Do you think it is OK to be dishonest sometimes? When?	When it hurts someone. For example, when you tell a classmate that his thobe is ugly.
Is cheating is bad? Why?	Yes, because students are missing the chance to learn.
Do you think cheating is a problem in schools? Why or why not?	Yes, because students pass without learning.
Do you think it is possible to stop students from cheating? How?	Yes, by using cameras.
Do you think that copying a report from the internet is wrong?	Yes, because it's dishonest.
Do you think that giving false information on a resume is wrong?	Yes, because it's dishonest.
Is it always better to be honest? Explain	Yes, because it's wrong to lie.
Why do you think people sometime cheat or are dishonest?	Because they want to make things easier.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see two men. One of them is Mr. Bean. He is wearing a gray jacket, a red tie and a white shirt. The other man is wearing a blue jacket and a white shirt. They are in a class room at a school. They're having an exam. The exam papers are on the desk. Mr. bean is trying to cheat from his classmate. Cheating is dishonest. When you cheat, you do not learn.

Part Three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
You need to include information from a survey. What will you say to refer to a source of information?	According to the survey . . . The survey found that . . . The survey results showed that . . .

Unit Seven:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
Is it ever too late to change?	No, people can change at any age.
Do you like to make changes in your life, or do you prefer things to stay the same?	No, because it's easier for things to stay the same.
Do you think old people or young people find it easier to make changes in their lives? Why?	I think it's easier for young people to change because they like new things.
What was the last big change in your life? How difficult was it?	When my family moved to a new neighborhood. It was very hard to find new friends.
What do people think about change in your culture? Is it positive thing or a negative thing? Do you agree?	People in my country think that change is positive, and I agree with them.
Did you ever try to change a habit? What was the habit? Were you successful?	Yes. I used to stay up late. I changed this bad habit. Now I sleep early and get up early.
What are some things you'd like to change in your life? Make notes then share your answers.	I use my phone very often to chat with friends. I want to change because I need more time to study.
How are you different now from than in the past?	I'm more responsible now than I was in the past.
Describe an important experience you had that changed you or your thinking?	I changed when I graduated from high school. I started to think and act like an adult.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see an old man. He's wearing a blue shirt and blue pants. He's also wearing a red helmet and gray gloves. He is in a forest. There are a lot of trees around him. The man is walking on a rope bridge. I think the man is making changes to enjoy outdoor activities and adventure.

Part Three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
You are giving a presentation. What will you say to check people's understanding?	Does everyone understand? Does that make sense? Is that clear? Are there any questions?

Unit Eight:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
When is it good to be afraid?	When you protect yourself in a dangerous situation.
What kinds of things make you feel afraid?	Insects, animals and heights.
Do you enjoy feeling of fear, for example, when you watch a horror movie or ride on a fast theme-park ride?	Yes because it's exciting.
There are three types of fear: anxiety, panic, and phobia. Do you have these types of fears? If yes, what about?	Yes, Anxiety: exams Panic: accidents Phobia: heights
The presenter says that sometimes people enjoy the feeling of fear, such as when they watch a horror program. Can you think of other examples?	Skydiving, race car driving and skiing
Do you know anyone with phobia? What kind of phobia? Is that person doing anything to get over the phobia? If so, what is he or she doing?	Yes. My friend, Ahmad, fears spiders. He did nothing to get over it.
Why do you think some fears are good and bad in our lives?	Fear is good when it protects you from danger. However, it's bad when it limits your opportunities in life.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see four children, two girls and two boys. They're riding a roller coaster. They look scared. The roller coaster is very fast and dangerous. People are afraid of roller coaster, but they feel excited. Fear is a natural feeling. Sometimes it's good to be afraid to protect ourselves in dangerous situations.

	I can see an old man. His hair is gray. He's wearing a gray jacket. There is a big snake on his arm. The man is so scared. Snakes are dangerous animals. They can kill people because they are poisonous. The man is trying to protect himself.
---	---

Part three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
Your friend tells you that he's afraid of cats. What will you say to express surprise?	No kidding! No way! Are you serious?
Your friend tell you that he passed his driving test. What will you sat to express happiness?	I'm glad to hear that. That's wonderful. Super.
Your friend tells you that his grandfather passed away. What will you say to express sadness?	I'm sorry to hear that.
Your friend tells you that he failed in his Math exam. What will you say to express sadness?	That's terrible. How awful.

Unit One:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
What are current trends in architecture?	Designing glassy trendy buildings.
Think about a city you know well. Which buildings are the most attractive? The most unattractive?	The Water tower in Madinah is attractive. However, the boxy buildings are unattractive.
How important is it for a city to have beautiful architecture?	It's very important.
Do you think that architects should follow the latest trends? Why or why not? Give examples	No, because trendy buildings are often expensive and ugly. For example, the new City Center building is trendy but not really beautiful.
What architectural styles do you admire? What kinds of buildings do you dislike?	I like traditional Islamic buildings. I dislike boxy buildings.
A famous architect said, "Buildings should serve people, not the other way around." What do you think this means? Do you agree? Why or why not?	It means that buildings should meet people's need, like space and shelter, not the other way around.
What are some other ways architects can design sustainable buildings and homes?	They can recycle torn-down buildings. The can also use the wind to generate energy.

Is living in sustainable home important to you? Why or why not?	Yes. Because it saves energy.
How modern is the city you live in? How sustainable is the architecture?	Generally, Madinah is not a modern city. Most buildings are not sustainable.
Imagine a world without creative architects. What would our cities look like?	The cities would be boring.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see two picture of buildings. The first one is the Arab Tower. It's in Dubai in the UAE. It's a modern tower. In surrounded by the see. It has a sale shape. I like it because it's trendy and modern. I think it's a sustainable building. However, in the second picture the buildings have a boxy shape. They're not energy efficient. They look boring. I don't like them.

Part three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
When you speak, what will you say to repeat an important idea about different words?	In other words, . . .
When you speak, what will you say to emphasize on a certain idea?	The key point is . . .
When you speak, what will you say to summarize the main ideas of the presentation?	To sum up . . .

Unit Two:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
How can colors be useful?	Bright colors can help traffic police to be seen by drivers.

Why can wearing dark clothes at night be dangerous?	Drivers won't see you.
Imagine you want to paint your house. What color do you choose? Why?	White because it makes me feel relaxed.
Most large predators, like lions, are not brightly colored. Why do you think this is true?	They're not brightly colored so their prey won't see them.
What are some ways people use color as camouflage or as a sign of danger?	Soldiers wear camouflage. Traffic police wear orange vests to be seen by drivers.
What colors are popular for houses where you live? Are there many different colors or are they mostly the same?	They're mostly beige.
What does your dream house look like?	It's a big house with colorful walls.
What colors do you prefer for your clothing and your home?	I like to wear white thobes and black sandals. For my home, I like to use dark colors.
What companies do you identify with a particular color?	Microsoft and Samsung use blue. UBS uses brown.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see two pictures of living rooms. The first one is a colorful room. However the second room is mainly white and gray. In the first picture, the walls are blue and the ceiling is orange while in the second one the walls are white. In the first room the sofa is blue and the armchair is beige. In the second one the sofas are white. I like the first room because blue makes me feel relaxed, and orange makes me feel excited.

Part three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
You are explaining something and you want to give an example to help the listener understand your ideas. What will you say?	For example . . . For instance . . . Here's an example . . .
When you don't understand something a speaker says, what will you say to ask for an example?	Can you give me an example? Do you have any examples?

Unit Three:

Part One: A dialog

Questions	Suggested Answers
Why are good manners important?
Do you feel that people are usually polite? Give examples.	Yes, people usually greet each other.
Are you ever unsure about manners in social situations? Give examples.	Yes, when I am new to a culture, I'm not always sure what is polite.
Think of a time when someone was rude to you. What did you do and say?	My neighbor was rude to me because he thought that I used his parking space. I just smiled and explained that it wasn't my car. Then he apologized.
Is it true that parents are not teaching good manners to their children? Why or why not?	Some parents are not teaching good manners to their children because they are too busy.
How did you learn about manners or etiquette? Give examples.	From my parents. They taught me to close my mouth while eating and to shake hands when I meet someone.
Imagine that you are writing a list of classroom rules for children in your country. What rules will you put on the list?	Don't bring food into the class. Don't use your cell phone. Don't be late.

Part Two: Describe a picture

Picture	Description
	I can see two young men. They are wearing black suits. I think they are from Japan. They are greeting each other. In Japan, people bow to greet each other. It's polite to greet other people. When you greet someone you show respect. In my country people shake hands to greet each other. It good to learn about manners of other cultures.

Part three: Respond to a particular situation

Situation	Suggested Response
Your brother has a Math exam tomorrow, but he is playing video games. What will you say to give him advice or recommendation?	Maybe you shouldn't play games now. You should study for you Math exam. I don't think you should play games now. You should study for you Math exam. Don't you think you should study for the exam? I think you should study for the exam.
You want to start a new project and you want to ask your friend for advice or recommendation. What will you say?	What colors should I use? Where should I open the project? Should I advertise on the internet?