Part I: Reading: Read the text then answer the following questions:

Yahya Stapie is 21. He was born in the United Arab Emirates, in Sharjah. He lives there now with his father and seven brothers and sisters. Last year Yahya was a final-year university student in Marketing in the UAE. Because he was in the right place at the right time, he's now the CEO of a new design company!

Yahya was a winner of a new competition called 'The Big Start', for university students. The competition organizer, Al Tamimi Investments, helps students like Yahya to start their own businesses. It gives them money, and everything they need to make their ideas into a real business.

Yahya's business is called 'United Designers', because it brings together design students and puts their work in a big store in a shopping mall.
