Choose the narrative present form of the verb to complete the sentences.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson are on a camping trip. After a good meal, they lie down for the night, and go to sleep. A few hours later, Holmes wakes up his friend. "Watson, look up at the sky and tell me what you see."

Watson says, "I see millions and millions of stars."

"What does that tell you?" says Sherlock.

Watson thinks carefully because he wants to give an intelligent answer.

"It tells me that there are millions of galaxies and maybe billions of planets. I also see that the time is about a quarter past three. Also, I think that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you?"

Holmes is silent for a minute, then speaks. "What it tells me, Watson, is that someone stole our tent."
