

COMPOSITIONS

Unit 1 The Law

1. Should motorists who drive too fast in residential areas be banned from driving? St. (p.15)

Every year, motorists who drive too fast in residential areas kill and injure thousands of people. Many people believe that fast motorists should be banned from driving to protect people and force motorists to respect the law. On the other hand, others think that we can stop them from driving too fast by using: traffic lights, traffic humps and large fines. I think the government has to protect people from fast motorists by all means. سواء

2. Do you think companies should allow their employees to use work computers for their own purposes? Act. (p.8)

Using work computers at work by employees, for their own purposes is something that must not be allowed for different reasons. First, when work computers are used for personal purposes, the quality of the services will be affected. Second, employees may use computers in illegal ways, such as fraud, identity theft or hacking other computers. Finally, using work computers for personal purposes will badly affect customer service, the company's image and reduce its profits. دنيا

Unit 2 Migration

Hi,

How are you? I'm writing to tell you the story why I have chosen to study history. سواء

When I was 16, my family and I visited the historic city of Palmyra. Palmyra is a well-known tourist attraction at the heart of the Syrian Desert. It is known for its great historic sites. We started our visit early in the morning. We took a walk through the main street. Then we went to the ancient Roman Theater. Later, we visited the Old Temple and took great photos of all the places we visited. This visit was the reason that made me decide to study history.

Unit 3 Recycling

5. Write a report based on waste and recycling statistics.

St. Book (p. 27) / Act. Book (p. 17)

Recycling is the processing of used materials so that they can be used again. Statistics show that countries in the developed world recycle materials more than countries in the developing world. Statistics also show that most developing countries are still burying or burning their waste materials, whereas developed countries have been recycling waste materials for more than 50 years. In Syria, lots of materials are recycled, but still some are buried or burned.

6. Write a set of recommendations to improve life in your city or country.

St. Book (p. 30)

Write a letter to a local newspaper making recommendations which might help to solve ONE of these problems.

Act. Book (p. 22)

- Very few tourists come to your town because they know nothing about it.

Dear Editor,

Although our town is an ancient one with so many places to visit, very few tourists come to visit it. My first recommendation to solve this problem is to have a website for our town with lots of photos. Second, to help tourists enjoy their stay, we need better public transport, underground stations and parking lots. Finally, more restaurants, hotels, shops, gyms, and parks have to be provided to make our town an interesting place to visit.

I am looking forward to reading this letter in your newspaper.

- There are very few public places in your town where people can go to keep fit.

Dear Editor,

Although our town is a modern one with so many places to go to, there are very few public places where people can go to keep fit. My first recommendation to solve this problem is to have a gym in every area. Second, the price of going into the gym has to be cheap so that everyone can afford it. Finally, the equipment in these gyms has to be suitable for all ages.

I am looking forward to reading this letter in your newspaper.

Unit 4 the Earth at Risk

7. Write a reply to an e-mail on water shortage, suggesting ways of consuming less water.

Students' Book (p. 39)

Water shortage is one of the most serious problems facing the world today. My first recommendation to solve this problem and consume less water is to repair old water systems. Second, we have to use modern watering systems for farming and stop the use of drinking water for watering lands or for cleaning. Finally, governments have to build more dams and control the use of drinking water. I think that preserving water is everybody's job.

Unit 6 Under Threat

8. Write a report to the council making recommendations about where to build houses.

Students' Book (p. 51)

I am writing this report to make recommendations about where to build houses in our town. My first recommendation is to build the northern area outside the town which is unpolluted and has fresh air. Second, the location of the area helps in easily linking it with the town center. Finally, this area is so big that so many neighborhoods can be built. I think building the northern area out of town is the best decision to make.

9. Write a leaflet publicising the problem of climate change and suggesting two or three ways in which ordinary people can reduce the amount of energy they use. Activity Book (p.41)

Climate change is one of the most serious problems facing the world today. It is caused by greenhouse gases which make the Earth hotter and hotter. People and governments could help in solving this problem if they cut down on using fossil fuels and used other sources of energy like solar power, wind power and water power. People could also help in controlling global warming if they used bikes or public transport instead of their own cars.

10. Write an essay including arguments for and against protecting wild animals. Activity Book (p.37)

Some people think that we have to protect wild animals, while others think that we do not have to. Actually, the first group believes that by protecting wild animals we are protecting nature and we are helping wild animals to increase especially the endangered ones. On the other hand, the other group thinks that protecting people is more important than protecting wild animals, and the money spent on protecting these animals must be spent on people.

11. Write an essay about the arguments for and against keeping household pets. Activity Book (p.37)

Many people like keeping animals as pets. Singing birds and goldfish are beautiful and entertaining. Cats have many advantages and people keep dogs for many purposes. However, pets may carry germs that cause many dangerous diseases. They also leave dirt wherever they move. Personally, I don't have strong feelings about keeping any kind of animals at home. I believe that animals live better in their habitats where they enjoy their natural lives.

12. Write an essay about the arguments for and against eating meat. Activity Book (p.37)

There are many health benefits of eating meat. It is a great source of proteins and it contains all the amino acids that the body needs. Besides, meat is very delicious. However, many people think that eating meat is bad for health. There are many diseases related to eating meat. Dieters think that avoiding meat is the simplest way to cut down on fat. I believe that eating various kinds of food in few amounts is better for health.

Unit 7 Healthy Life

13. Write a magazine article giving advice to people of your age who are about to start a new job.

دورة 2013 علمي

Students' Book (p. 63)

When you start a new job, it's good to remember some of these tips. First of all, always try to be punctual. To learn fast, you have to listen and learn from your workmates, and you have to keep asking questions about things you don't know. Also, the best way to make friends at work is to be honest, work hard and offer help when you can. And remember: "Good starts lead to great successes."

14. Write an article giving advice to people of your age about how to do well at school. St. (p. 63)

To be a good student, it is good to remember some of these tips. First of all, always try to make use of your time whether during school time or at home. To learn fast, you have to listen to your teachers and keep asking questions about things you don't know. At home, study your lessons daily and prepare well before exams. And remember: "Don't put off till tomorrow what can be done today."

15. Write an article giving advice to people of your age about how to be a good brother or sister.

St. (p. 63)

To be a good brother or sister, it's good to remember some of these tips. First of all, you have to be there every time your brothers or sisters need you. Offer help when they need it and always keep the secrets they tell you. Share with them the happy moments and the sad ones. Give advice when needed and ask for their advice. If you follow these tips, you will be a good brother or sister.

16. Staying Healthy

What do you do to keep healthy? Do you have the best balance of habits and activities? How can you improve your health? Act. (p. 45)

There are many things we can do to stay healthy. Doctors advise that regular exercise and a healthy diet are important to stay healthy. In addition, it is very important to get enough sleep and to exercise our brains, too. As we get older, it is even more important that we keep busy. We should make plans for the future, keep a positive outlook on life and enjoy the support of the family environment.

Unit 8 Urban & Rural Life

17. Write your own description of a building you know well. It could be the building you live in.

Include the following:

Activity Book (p.51)

- the location of the building
- the appearance of the outside of the building
- information about any natural features near the building

I live in a seven-storey modern building located in the center of Damascus. It is a massive building with a lovely garden around it. It has two entrances, a parking area, two lifts and a playground for children. The balconies overlook the garden, and you can have a lovely view of Damascus from there. There is a committee that looks after the building and provides all services. It is good to live in a place like this.

- Write a description of a photograph using position words, adjectives and weather words.

Activity Book (p.27)

20. Write about a tourist attraction in your country. Choose one of these places:

(Activity Book p. 60)

- a historical town or city - an interesting old building - an area of natural beauty

1- A Historical Town or City

Palmyra is a well-known tourist attraction at the heart of the Syrian Desert. It is known for its great historic sites and was an important trading center on the Silk Road. When you visit Palmyra, you can take a walk through the main street. Then you can go to the ancient Roman Theater. Later, you can visit the Old Temple. If you want to see rich ancient history, try visiting Palmyra.

2- An Interesting Old Building

Al Azem Palace is an interesting old building in the Old City of Damascus. It was built in the mid 18th century. It is now a very famous museum visited by thousands of tourists as well as locals every year. It is an excellent example of a traditional Damascene house. The rooms are large and have many things that show how people lived in the past. It is really an interesting building to visit.

3- An Area of Natural Beauty

The Damascus Ghouta is a green area of natural beauty surrounding the city of Damascus. It always been the place where almost every Damascene family goes for a picnic during the spring. area is rich with different types of trees and plants. When you take a walk in the Damascus Ghouta, enjoy the green view and the shade of trees. It is really an interesting place to visit.

دورة 2013 ادبي

activity Book (p.

Hi,

Thanks for letting me go on holiday with your family. I've almost finished packing my bags. I taken the things we have agreed on. But I think that there are other things we might need. I think might be a good idea to take a small gas cooker. And how about taking some ice cubes for the water. And don't you think that we have to take a ball or tennis rackets? Let me know what you think.

See you soon.

Unit 11 Future Projects

23. Write a report about the most important technological changes that have affected people's lives recently. Students' Book (p.93)

Write a report about how computers have affected people's lives recently.

I am writing this report to focus on how electronic technology has affected people's lives recently.

Before computers, doing things used to take a lot of time, while now things are done easier and faster through using computer software. Today, software like Word, Excel, Photoshop and many other programs make jobs done easier. The Net has also made communication and interaction easier and faster. Today, for example, it takes only seconds to send someone a message.

24. Write a report making recommendations which will improve road safety in your town or city.

Activity Book (p.70)

I am writing this report to make a number of recommendations which will improve road safety in our city. First of all, accidents which kill and injure hundreds every year must be reduced. This could be done through using more traffic lights, traffic humps and large fines. More pedestrian areas and zebra crossings are needed to help protect pedestrians and school children. If these recommendations are accepted, we believe that road safety in our city will improve.

Unit 12 Geniuses

25. What do you think about people who risk their lives climbing mountains? Activity Book (p.79)

Mountaineering is a dangerous sport practised by young people who love challenge and adventure. It is most common in countries with high mountains. People who do this sport feel excited when they make it to the top. On the other hand, non-mountaineers think that it is crazy to practise this dangerous sport. I think that people who are born with love of adventure and challenge are the ones who don't mind climbing high mountains.
