The umbrella is an old idea. It hasn't changed much over time.

It seems natural to open an umbrella when it rains. But actually the umbrella wasn't invented for protection against the rain. It was first used as a shade against the sun. Nobody knows who first invented it, but the umbrella was used in very ancient times. The first people to use it were probably the Chinese in the eleventh century B.C. The umbrella spread to ancient Egypt and Babylon. At that time, the umbrella was only for rich people.

It is believed that the first people to use umbrella as protection against rain were the ancient Romans.

There isn't much information about umbrellas in Europe in the old times. People probably used their coats to protect themselves from the rain.

On March 27, 2013, John Sweeney, a plumber from Ireland, started a Facebook page called Suspended Coffees. His message was simple: Buy a cup of coffee for a stranger, because an act of kindness can change a life and make a difference.

Suspended coffee is a tradition that comes from Naples, Italy, and it dates to the 20th century. When customers buy coffee, they also pay in advance for a cup to be given to somebody else; usually someone who otherwise couldn't afford it. This initiative was forgotten, but then it revived again in 2011.

You can buy it for anyone in need. It's not up to you to judge- if someone asks, then they're in need- no CV required.

Once upon a time, in a very thick jungle, there was a big lake. The wild animals used to go to drink and swim in that lake. But every day many hunters went into the forest to hunt those animals.

One day, a couple of elephants were walking happily towards the lake in order to drink and swim as normal when they both saw a group of ants drowning in the middle of the lake. They felt sorry for those ants, so they broke one branch of a tree and threw it into the water where the ants were drowning so that the ants could reach the other side of the lake safely.

A week later, a hunter went to hunt the animals and then he saw those elephants. The hunter wanted to kill them but luckily the ants knew the hunter's plans and attacked the hunter's legs. At the same time, the elephants heard the noise and then ran a way!

Hanan Al-Hroub was a poorly paid teacher in the west Bank. Then she won a $ 1 million prize.

Besides her clown outfit, Mrs. Al-Hroub uses balloons, hula-hoops, toy cars and puppets to explain her lessons.

In addition to the toys and balloons, she uses videos and even PowerPoint in the classroom. For the first month of a new school year, her eight-year-old pupils may not even see an exercise book.

Parents often refuse the focus on play. That soon changes, Mrs. Al-Hroub says, when they realise that her methods improve behaviour- especially in troubled kids- and academic results. She also sees it as her duty to build their characters. "No to violence" is a motto in her classes.
