

The Withered Arm

Thomas Hardy Retold by Jennifer Basset

Glossary

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

English	Description in English	Spanish arson	the crime of setting fire to a building	incendio premeditado believe	to think that something is true or real	creer blood	the red liquid inside the body	sangre carriage	a kind of "car" that is pulled by horses	carruaje cow	a farm animal that gives milk	vaca cruel	not kind; giving pain or unhappiness to other people	cruel cure (n)	something to make an illness go away	cura, remedio curse (n)	asking for something bad to happen to someone	maldición dairy	a place where cows are milked, milk is kept, etc.	lechería, vaquería dream (n)	a picture in your head when you are sleeping	sueño egg	a round thing laid by a chicken, which we eat	huevo enemy	a person who hates you; the opposite of "friend"	enemigo fall (past tense fell)	to go down quickly; to drop	caer farmer	a person who owns a farm (a place to keep animals and grow food)	granjero flesh	the soft part of your body under the skin	carne God (dear God)	words you say when you are surprised or afraid	¡Oh Dios!

English	Description in English	Spanish
hang	to kill somebody by holding them above the ground by a rope around the neck	ahorcar hangman	a person whose job is to hang criminals	verdugo heavy	difficult to move or carry	pesado horse	an animal that you can ride, or that can pull carriages	caballo innocent	an innocent person has done nothing bad or wrong	inocente jail	a prison	prisión
kind	friendly and helpful	amable, gentil mark (n)	if you touch a piece of paper with a wet, dirty finger, you leave a mark on the paper	marca, señal, huella married	having a husband or a wife	casado/casada milkmaid	a woman who works in a dairy, milking cows	lechera pale	with no colour in the face	pálido phantom	a ghost; a "person" who is not real	fantasma poor	with very little money; also, a word you use when you feel sorry for someone or something	pobre pretty	nice to look at	bonito, precioso ride (v)	to sit on a horse's back when it moves	montar a caballo sad	not happy	triste
scream (v)	to make a loud high cry when you are afraid or hurt	chillar shiver (v)	to shake with cold, or fear	temblar stare (v)	to look at something for a long time	mirar fijamente strange	very unusual or surprising	extraño, desco- nocido sweet	kind and gentle	agradable, amable tears	water that comes from the eyes when you cry	lágrimas terror	very great fear	terror thin	not fat	delgado trial	a time when a judge decides if a criminal has done something wrong or not	juicio, proceso uncover	to take something from the top of another thing	destapar, des- cubrir veil	a piece of material that a woman puts over her head and face	velo

English	Description in English	Spanish
wedding-ring	a ring on the third finger, to show you are married	alianza whisper	to speak very, very quietly	susurrar wise	knowing and understanding many things	sabio witch	a woman who can make bad things happen to people	bruja withered	thin and weak, looking old and dry and dead	marchito, atrofiado worried	afraid that something bad is going to happen	preocupado

Words to learn

- Write down any other new words you discover in your Oxford Graded Reader.
- Translate them into your language.
- Now try to learn them!

English

Your language
