Complete what Aziza says about her family using the words in the box.

I have two brothers – George and Hani – and a sister, Camille. She was born 20 minutes before me, so obviously, we're twins! My dad, Elias, is a police officer, and my mum, Mariam, looks after the house. My grandparents, Khaled and Amira, live with us, too. George and Hani go to school, and I'm a student at the university, but Camille is married and has two little children, so I'm an aunt! My nephew, Karim, is three years old, and my niece, Maha, is just four months old.

- 1 Katharine Hamnett is a journalist / designer.
- 2 Glastonbury is a classical / rock and folk music festival.
- 3 Bondi Beach is famous for surfing / sailing.
- 4 Stockholm at Christmas is hot / cold.

MY FAVOURITE OUTFIT

Nick was a journalist, but now he has a band and is a DJ. His look is very relaxed. "All my clothes have a story. They are all second-hand." Nick likes the style of Bryan Ferry from Roxy Music and the young Mick Jagger.

JACKET

"When I worked as a journalist at a fashion magazine, my friend Gary, who's a designer, gave me this. It's by Katharine Hamnett, and it's lovely and light."

SCARF

"This belonged to my girlfriend's dad. He was a hippy in the 60s and he wore this to the first Glastonbury music festival in 1970."

T-SHIRT

"I bought this in a surf shop on Bondi Beach, in Sydney. I went to do a concert and I bought some new clothes there."

JEANS

"Last Christmas, I went to Stockholm to do a concert. It was a lovely weekend of hot wine and ice-skating – and I bought these jeans, too."

TRAINERS

"I moved house about three months ago and I found these in the flat. I think they belonged to my old flatmate, Gareth – sorry, Gareth."
