

I. Answer the following: (9)

A. Circle the theme of the following utterance, underline the rheme, and state the kind of it is. (1)

1. I feel that traveling is a great way to explore and understand other cultures.

Kind of theme: lexical theme conjunction theme

B. What does each of the following utterances show: (8) "1 each"

1. Marry: Can you help me carry the bag?

Sam: umm, I have undergone a surgery lately. (0.3) the doctor told me that I can't carry things. Sorry!

umm (lack conversation) and Sam she was telling that she will not carry Marry's bag. (0.3) mean the speaker in the conversation stop seconds after that she continue.

2. Mike: Hi Sara, how are you?

Sally: Oh, I am Sally, and I am fine thank you.

Sally said (oh) she feel disappointed because Mike call her Sara and after that she answer him.

3. Chris: I want to [emphasize]

Jennifer: [but I have told]

Chris: [emphasize that] your performance was weak.

in the conversation here used transcriptions conversation [also (your) here is an exophoric reference

4. Mark: How are you?

Linda: Fine thank you.

Exophoric reference

5. Act like a lady, think like a man.

here is explaining that she is have both identities when she she is a lady or he and think as a man in the same.

I. Answer the following: (___ /9)

A. Circle the theme of the following utterance, underline the rheme, and state the kind it is. (___ /1)

1. I feel that traveling is a great way to explore and understand other cultures.

Kind of theme: ~~etc~~ lexical theme conjunction ~~and~~ theme

B. What does each of the following utterances show: (___ /8) "1 each"

1. Marry: Can you help me carry the bag?

Sam: umm, I have undergone a surgery lately. (0.3) the doctor told me that I can't carry things. Sorry!

umm (lack conversation) and Sam she was telling that she will carry Marry's bag. (0.3) mean the speaker in the conversation stops seconds after that she continue

2. Mike: Hi Sara, how are you?

Sally: Oh, I am Sally, and I am fine thank you.

Sally said (oh) she feel disappointed because Mike call her. So and after that she answer him

3. Chris: I want to [emphasize]

Jennifer: [but I have told]

Chris: [emphasize that] your performance was weak.

in the conversation here used transcription conversation [also (your) here is an exophoric reference

4. Mark: How are you?

Linda: Fine thank you.

Exophoric reference

ct like a lady, think like a man.

ve is explaining that she is have both identities when she is a lady or he and think as a man in the same

6. Saud: مشغول اليوم، بودي البيت للمستشفى.
 this utterance here "المستشفى" does not mean home!!
 here in our culture means his family or wife or girl.
7. Mother: Do not buy this dress, the green one is cuter.
 the green here mention something written before so the
 is mean the green dress.
 (cataphoric reference)
8. Sara is absent. She will not be able to present today.
 she here is a (anaphoric reference) so Sara is she.
 she is Sara because she ~~already~~ known.

Read the following statements, underline True if the statement is true, or False if the statement is false: (___/5) "1 each"

1. Written discourse is less lexically dense than spoken discourse. (True-False)
2. Linear theme refers to when theme 1 is picked up and repeated in the next clause. (True-False)
3. The general rule is that one speaker speaks at a time. (True-False)
4. Conversation analysis looks at ordinary, everyday spoken discourse only. (True-False)
5. "Since it was summer, people went to the beach." Since here is a comparative conjunction. (True-False)

What is the difference between a general corpus and a specific one? (___/1)