

Unit 2

London changed because of immigration. In the past, there were only English people, but now there are people from many countries. There was only English food, but now food is from all over the world. Art and music are now very diverse. Now, London has the biggest businesses in the world. London became better and more interesting because of immigration. (60 words)

Dubai changed because of immigration. People from all over the world came and settled there. In the past, there was local food only, but today there is food from different countries. In the past, people wore traditional clothes, but now they wear modern clothes, so even the traditional shops changed. Now there are big malls. Dubai became an international city because of immigration. (62 words)

Madinah changed because of immigration. People came from different countries and settled in Madinah for job opportunities. In the past, there was only local food, but now there are many international restaurants. Small markets changed to big malls. Now there are many international businesses, so there are many languages spoken in Madinah. Madinah has changed a lot because of immigration. (60 words)

Unit 5

Soccer is my favorite sport. I like to play and watch soccer. I usually play soccer with my brother and sister in the park behind our house. We play soccer on weekends. Sometimes my family and I watch soccer matches on TV. This sport makes me feel energetic. I really think that soccer is the best sport because I love it. 61

I think soccer is the best sport. I really love it.

My favorite sport is swimming. I like to swim because it is fun to be in the water. I usually swim in pool during my free time. I swim for two hours every week. I like to swim in the morning. I usually like to swim by myself. Swimming helps me relax and it makes me feel energetic. I love swimming. 61

My favorite sport is tennis. I watch tennis on TV with my family. I like to play it often. I usually play it every weekend. I play tennis with my friends outdoors because we have a lot of fun. This sport makes me feel happy. I really love tennis because it is fun. I wish to be a good player one day. 61

Unit 7

You might be asked to draw a time line UNDER the paragraph to include dates and events!

These are the most important changes in my life. In April 2019, I graduated from high school, and I felt very responsible. After that, I started taking driving lessons, which was scary, but it was an amazing feeling. Two months later, I became a university student. I was so happy because this was my dream. These changes made me feel like an adult. 63

These are the important changes in my life. First, I graduated from high school in April 2019, and I felt very proud of myself. Then , I took driving lessons in the summer because I think it is important. After that, I felt responsible. Two months later , I became a university student. I was so happy because this was my dream. These changes made feel like an adult. 63

These are the most important changes in my life. First, I graduated from high school in April 2019, and I felt successful. After that, I took computer courses in the summer because I wanted to prepare for the university. Three months later, I became a university student at Taibah. I think these changes made me feel like a responsible adult. 60

Unit 1 Book 2

Smart phones are very popular where I live. I think people of all ages have them because they are easy to use. They help people to communicate through text messages, phone calls or video calls. Smart phones are helpful because they connect family and friends. They are popular because famous people advertise them. I think this is the best trend. 60

Shopping online is a popular trend in my country. Today many people shop online, and there are many applications to choose from. It is popular because it is fast, easy and saves time. It became popular because famous people advertise it. It doesn't connect people, but it is fun. I think shopping online is the best trend of the century. 60

Delivery applications are trendy nowadays. Many stores are selling their products on these applications. They are popular because they make life easier and save time. These applications make people happy because they are convenient. Also, people are able to see merchandise and compare prices. My family and friends use these applications regularly. I am so happy these applications became popular. 60

AirPods are very trendy nowadays. They are wireless earbuds created by Apple. They replaced the old headphones. They are popular because famous people advertise them. This trend is helping people to connect to each other. They help them to talk even if they are busy and cannot hold a phone. My friends and I have AirPods because they are popular. 60