Dear Mr Smith,

After greeting and hoping best wishes for you. I received your e-mail. You try to reduce the vacation time of your employees. I respect your suggestion but I think that it isn't a good idea. That's because the vacation help us to improve our attitude and produce more for the company. Vacations make us positive and reduce the stress produced as a result of work. So, we need more vacations that don't hurt the company's policy. So, I asked you to think again in this matter.

Thanking You,

Mrs.Elaf
